A Special Demonstration of Riker's Celebrated

Toilet Requisites

Types of Beauty may change, but the woman whose face is fresh and resestinted, whose skin is smooth as a baby's, whose wrinkles are conspicuous by their absence, has one kind et the trouble to acquire it. It may be acquired in a natural, simple and pleasant fashion, by the use of certain harmless 'siids,' which the Demonstrator will show and tell you of.

Among them: Riker's Violet Cerate; it is so well known to thousands of satisfied users that nothing further need be said; it is looked upon as a prime toilet necessity, and those who use it would not be without a jar for several times its value. Price 50e a jar.

Riker's Improved Cold Ceram, pure ingredients, delicately perfuned; 25c and 50e fax.

Riker's Antiseptie Tooth Powder; 15c box. Riker's Violet Extracts, like fresh violets; 50e once. Eleciss Face Powder; 50e box. Toldet Benzoin; 25c and 75e bottle. Riker's Taleum Powder; 15c box.

Riker's Dresden Face Powder—There is no other powder quite so soft and downy—so delicate and adherent. It is as nearly nature's adjunct as it is possible for a powder to be. It is made in five tints—white, pink, flesh, brunette and evening—to suit any complexion. Two sizes, 25c and 50e box.

Women's Gowns--- A Clearaway

Certain lots of gowns are going to new owners to-morrow under the impetus given them by some very drastic pricing—pricing such as characterizes Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company's Clearaways. The reason for this clearaway is that the gowns have been soiled or mussed from displaying them on tables and from handling.

They are not perfectly fresh, otherwise their prices would never be so humbled!
Those at 39e were exceptional values at 79c to 95c, lace and embroidery trimmed,

Those at 79c are of sheer nainsook, round and square necks, kimono sleeves, with ribbon and lace trimmings that are, in a word, dainty.

And these are our own fine stocks that we speak of!

No doubting their styles, of such are the season's fashions.

Velvets, broadcloths, velours de laine, matelasses, eponges, mix-tures. Most of them have a touch of fur about the collar, which sometimes buttons close and again is open.

There are one-button coats, cutaway, belted coats, coats with yokes and kimono sleeves, skirts draped in graceful lines, usually they are the "peg top" effect.

It is a sale that does not always come so early in the season--- indeed, the vogue for velvet suits is growing every day---still they are

The Story of a Glove with a Paris Point

After negotiations extending over eight months we are pleased to announce

Another "Best Glove at Its Price." 86c "The Celestine," and Its Price Is

The eight months do not measure the time that we have spent easting about for this best glove at its price, but only the time we have been negotiating with this maker across the seas. The glove he wanted us to take at first was in quality all that it should be, what we were searching for.

were searching tor.
We wanted it finished differently.
And we got it as we wanted it.
So to-day after eight months of dickering and preparation we have "The Celestine" at 86c.

It is a schmaschen kid, the first we have ever sold for the very good reason that it is the first that has measured up to our standard of what a schmaschen should be. So good is it, and so sure are we of it, that we have had our name put in every pair.

A two-clasp glove of firm, plump skin, soft, flexible, and it is Paris-point stitched.

just as the most expensive glove we sell.
You may have black, white, tan, slate, with self-stitching, and black with white stitching. All sizes from 5½ to 7¼—86c.

The New Handkerchiefs Are Here

The superb values, the rare novelties, the certain uniformity of qualities that Atlantans are accustomed to finding at Chamberlin-Johnson-Dubose Co. syear after year are due to our methods of collecting Christmas handkerchiefs.

methods of collecting Christmas handkerchiefs. We go direct to Ireland, and thereby cut costs to such an extent that we are enabled to show finer handkerchiefs at a given price than those who have to pay the importer a profit. This is a very matter-of-fact statement about these exquisitely dainty bits of linen, about which the advertising pen is prone to grow enthusiastic, but it explains conditions and why these exquisitely dainty bits of linen are not priced as you might expect. you might expect.

We leave the enthusiasm for you—when you

THE PAY OF OUR JUDGES ---Must Be Increased to Retain Upon the Bench the Right Sort of Men.

The press of the State of Georgia is echoing from every quar. ter the demand of the Atlanta Georgian that better salaries be paid the judges of the courts of the Commonwealth.

Whatever may be the status of other departments of the State-and it is admitted that there are underpaid officials in several-it seems agreed on all hands that it is of first importance NOW that the judiciary be taken care of righteously and fairly in the matter of salaries.

Remember these facts: The judges of the Supreme and Appeals Courts, the final tribunals of review, receive only $4,000 per annum each; the judges of the Superior Courts receive $3,000

Think of those niggardly salaries. Think of the personnel Tains of those migardiy salaries. Tains of the personned of the courts, as they are and as they should be kept, and then ask yourself, as a taxpayer, as a property owner, and as a citizen lowing law and order, if it is FAIR AND SQUARE DEALING UPON THE FART OF GEORGIA NOT TO FAY THOSE JUDGES ENOUGH TO LIVE ON.
With respect to the Supreme and Appeals Courts, the Rome Tribune Herald aptly and justly says:

Fribune-Herald aptly and justly says:

If Georgia expects to keep the best lawyers in the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals it will have to raise their salaries.

Resignations from the Supreme Court have been frequent during late years, owing to the fact that the judges could not afford to hold the positions.

It is of paramount importance compose these courts. Many lawyers of scarcely medium ability are earning more than the judges of the highest courts in the State.

A first-rate lawyer takes a position on the Supreme or Appellate Court. He gives up his practice and devotes his entire time to the business of the State. When he returns to the practice, it is necessary to begin all over again. These judges should be paid salaries commensurate with the service rendered.

If the State of Georgia expects to retain their services that is about all there is to it.

If the State of Georgia expects to retain their services that is about all there is to it."

That, indeed, IS "about all there is to it."

And the comment of the Rome paper is but one of many similarly worded and thought out, coming recently from all sections of Georgia.

Georgia should be both ASHAMED AND AFRAID TO UNDERPAY ITS JUDICIARY.

Salaries for Supreme and Superior Court judges, provided to-day upon a basis established twenty-five years ago, are unfair, necessarily.

The courts, after all, constitute the greatest and surest bulwark of the people against oppression and injustice.

The people of Georgia can ill afford to be FOOLISH in respect to these tribunals for the administration of the law.

The present Legislature, when it meets next summer, will do well to take under serious and statesmanlike consideration the question of better salaries for Georgia judges.

The Legislature is the vehicle provided by the people for the equitable adjustment of problems of this kind. And throughout all Georgia there exists an earner belief that the judiciary at present SHAMEFULLY AND DEPLORABLY UNDER PAID.

The people undoubtedly will approve that Legislature possessed of sufficient common sense and courage to right the crysing wrong now imposed upon the judges of Georgia.

The Boss or The Clock?

WHICH DO YOU BEAT TO WORK?

It's always easier to sleep a few minutes late in the morning after that game of pool or peker the night before, thinking "0.h Lean skin into the office before the boss gets there and he won't be wise." But the boss IS wise—or he wouldn't be the BOSS—and when promotion time comes, you will find you have been beating no one but YOURSELF; also that the thing worth beating in the business world is the CLOCK, and not the BOSS.
